Ashton Richardson ’17: received a Marshall Scholarship; one of only 40 in the U.S. tx.ag/ARichardson

John Jay ’81: elected to serve as chair of the Independent Bankers Association of Texas board, nation’s largest state community banking association.

Allyson Baumeister ’85: elected 2015-16 chairman for the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Chris Paddie ’96: named chairman of the Texas Association of Broadcasters. tx.ag/Paddie

Todd Staples ’84: named president of the Texas Oil & Gas Association. tx.ag/Staples

Paul Jagodzinski ’79: elected to board of the American Chemical Society, world’s largest scientific society.

Delia Garza ’99: first Latina elected to City Council in Austin. tx.ag/Garza

Dr. Roger P. Byrne ’66: John F. Freihaut Political Activist Award for advocacy and support of legislative issues that benefit oral and maxillofacial surgery.

Ronald C. Keating ’91: named CEO of Evoqua Water Technologies and will be appointed a member of the board of directors.

Michael Haack ’97: appointed chief operating officer of Eagle Materials. tx.ag/MHaack

J. Anthony Gallegos ’92: promoted to president and CFO of Sidewinder Drilling.

Ryan Sitton ’97: elected Texas Railroad Commissioner. tx.ag/RSitton

TAMU Police Chief J. Michael Ragan ’82: selected to International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators Board of Directors.

TAMU marketing professor Rajan Varadarajan: awarded AMA/Irwin/McGraw-Hill Distinguished Marketing Educator Award. tx.ag/RVaradarajan

Jessica S. Morrison ’07: named among “Top Attorneys” in the December 2014 issue of Fort Worth, Texas magazine. tx.ag/JMorrison

Bill Way ’81: promoted to president of Southwestern Energy Co.