Aggie Networking In Jordan

“Howdy Ags,” wrote Lt. Col. Ruben A. Martinez ’92, USMC. “While vacationing in Jordan, I visited the baptism site of Jesus Christ at Bethany. A group of teachers, also vacationing, were talking, and my friend and I recognized their U.S. accents. Two of the teachers explained that they were from Texas, to which I replied, ‘The only thing that could make this meeting better is if you say you are an Aggie.’ To which Janae Miles replied, ‘Class of 2009.’ We had an immediate bond and friendship that made the whole experience that much sweeter. I am here to report that the Aggie Network was alive and well on 6 October 2014 in Bethany, Jordan.”

Aggies Visit Pearl Harbor

“Gig ’em from the deck of the Battle-ship Missouri, where the treaty to end WWII was signed,” wrote Amber Sisemore Cummings ’13. “We thank all of our Aggie vets who have served proudly!”
