A voyage aboard the Exclusively Chartered Small Ship
Five-Star MS L’Austral
May 24-June 1, 2016
Howdy, Ags!

Across the length and breadth of Scotland and Norway lies an unsurpassed richness of archaeological heritage left from the age of the Vikings and before, where ancient stone monuments and castles present an enigmatic and imposing face to the world. Explore this fascinating land of ruins and castles, Viking and Celtic clans, old-world villages and the spectacular natural features of misty isles, wild glens, lochs and moors. Hear the Gaelic language, still spoken in the Scottish Highlands, where the history of the people who lived here for centuries emanates from the heather-covered hillsides. Experience these remote gems of the North Atlantic on a journey to the distant and mysterious islands along the idyllic seascapes and splendid coastlines of Scotland, Norway and Denmark.

Our rare and specially designed itinerary follows along the stepping stones of Nordic and Scottish civilizations during the best time of year, when the weather is mild and the days are long, a unique voyage accomplished only aboard a small ship accessing smaller ports where larger vessels cannot venture. The exclusively chartered Five-Star small ship MS L’Austral, featuring only 110 deluxe Suites and Staterooms and providing all the luxury and sophistication of a fine hotel, is the ideal small ship to navigate the course of this unique itinerary.

Cruise from Glasgow to Copenhagen—two great cultural capitals—and visit two UNESCO World Heritage sites, several of the most seldom-visited islands of the North Atlantic and the incredible natural wonders of Scandinavia. Travel aboard The Jacobite steam train, better recognized as Harry Potter’s Hogwarts™ Express and “one of the great railway journeys of the world.” Tour the iconic 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle outside Kyle of Lochalsh, admire the natural beauty of the Shetland Islands with their remarkable links to the distant past, and learn more about Viking history on the tradition-steeped Orkney Islands. Traverse the ancient shipping lanes of the Vikings as you cross the North Sea to historic Bergen; and en route to Copenhagen, admire picturesque settlements dotting the lovely Norwegian coastline and its scenic archipelago.

Join us for this exceptional small ship voyage of a lifetime—a great travel value with all meals, excursions and accommodations included. This popular program has sold out quickly in the past, so I encourage you to book now while space and Early Booking Savings are available.

During the ephemeral Viking Age, which prevailed almost 300 years between the eighth and 11th centuries, the Men of the North were cast as fierce barbarians who plundered their way across the known world. Viking depictions of Thor's hammer and Odin’s ravens, symbols of their pagan gods, helped propagate, through oral traditions, their mythos as fearsome invaders in the world's imagination for over a millennium. Yet hints of their legacy found in runic inscriptions offer a splendid pageant of history and show them as practical opportunists and traders with a heavy cultural emphasis on poetry, artistry and technology. Vikings were extraordinary mariners, setting their longships out to crisscross half the world, vastly extending its known boundaries, and founding new colonies as far west as North America, as far south as North Africa and as far east as the Caspian Sea. They created a network of merchants and trade that linked directly to the Hanseatic League in Bergen, which contributed greatly to the development of the 15th-century economy on the Shetland and Orkney Islands. The Vikings' many-sided achievements impressed themselves upon the non-Scandinavian world, and the complexity and nuances of their culture await your discovery across these remote, verdant, storied lands.

Scottish Highlands/Oban/Fort William/The Jacobite Steam Train (Hogwarts™ Express)/Mallaig
Thursday, May 26
Enjoy a full day’s journey through the lush, resplendent beauty of the legendary Scottish Highlands. From Oban, travel through the heart of the Highlands and see the picturesque Pass of Brander, Loch Awe with views of the striking Kilchurn Castle and Rannoch Moor, one of the last remaining wildernesses in Europe. Enjoy the splendor of majestic Glencoe, most of which is owned and preserved by the National Trust for Scotland, and continue along the verdant shores of Loch Linnhe. After lunch in Fort William, board The Jacobite steam train—immortalized as the Hogwarts™ Express in the Harry Potter film series—for “one of the great railway journeys of the world” through awe-inspiring natural landscapes. Begin your train journey in the shadow of Ben Nevis, the highest mountain in the British Isles, and ride past Loch and River Morar to Mallaig near Loch Nevis, the deepest seawater loch in Europe. Along the way, stop at Glenfinnan, where Bonnie Prince Charlie rallied Jacobite Highlanders against King George II in 1745.

This evening, attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception. The ship will overnight in Mallaig.

Look for black guillemots along the coast of the Orkney Islands.

Isle of Skye/Kyle of Lochalsh
Friday, May 27
Cruise the coastline of ethereal Isle of Skye, home to some of Scotland’s most phenomenal geography, and where the mist, shafts of sunlight and vivid rainbows congregate in a dazzling array of colors that seem to make the glens greener and the sea bluer. Visit Armadale Castle’s spectacular 17th-century gardens and learn about the powerful reign of Clan Donald, Lords of the Isles until 1493. Then, cross the Skye Bridge to Kyle of Lochalsh to visit the 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle, named for a sixth-century Irish saint and one of the most iconic castles in the world.
This evening, Nick Card, the director and head archaeologist at the Ness of Brodgar archaeological site, will provide insights about this impressive ancient compound.

Kirkwall, Orkney Islands
Saturday, May 28
Seven hundred years before the pharaohs built Giza’s pyramids and Neolithic man raised Stonehenge, ancient inhabitants of this archipelago employed technological prowess centuries ahead of its time to erect Ness of Brodgar. Today, this mysterious compound rivals the scale of the fifth-century B.C. Athenian Acropolis, though it was constructed nearly three millennia earlier. Walk around the stone monoliths of the Ring of Brodgar, which were raised more than 3500 years ago to chart the seasons.
See the ceremonial Stones of Stenness en route to visit the settlement of Skara Brae. Archaeologists suggest these sites, along with the Ness of Brodgar, were inhabited by an early Orcadian culture known for decorative arts and sophisticated craftsmanship. Pilgrims and traders carried the Orcadian innovations to the mainland and beyond—making Orkney more than just a remote scatter of islands but rather a hub of Neolithic civilization.
Thousands of years later, the Vikings established the port town of Kirkwall on Orkney’s main island, leaving behind the towering 12th-century St. Magnus Cathedral, known as the “Light of the North.” Enjoy time at leisure to explore Kirkwall.
Hear the evocative melodies of a traditional Scottish bagpiper as you reboard the ship. This evening, listen as a seanachaí weaves the traditional stories that have been handed down by word of mouth for generations in these remote isles.

Lerwick, Shetland Islands
Sunday, May 29
Dock in Lerwick and explore the majestic Shetland Islands, declared a Global Geopark by UNESCO for their geologically diverse

Bergen, Norway/
Norway's Southern Archipelago
Monday, May 30

The city of Bergen was founded on an old Viking settlement in 1070 and has a proud history as an important part of the Hanseatic League’s trading empire from the 14th to mid-16th centuries. Enjoy a walking tour of Bergen’s Bryggen (the old wharf), a UNESCO World Heritage site, which still flaunts its characteristically colorful wooden houses. See Troldhugen, the summer home of Edvard Grieg, Norway’s most famous composer, and walk the grounds of his estate. Then, visit the reconstructed Fantoft Stavkirke, a traditional 12th-century wooden stave church, named for its post and lintel construction. Enjoy the afternoon at leisure in Bergen.

Early this evening, be on deck while we cruise pristine cobalt blue waters through Norway’s picturesque southern archipelago, once plied by Viking longships and dotted with verdant islands, quaint villages and traditional Norwegian farms.

Cruising the North Sea
Tuesday, May 31

Spend the day at leisure cruising the North Sea and enjoying a series of lectures. This evening, attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception.
